Please do not take away my right to trade options in a retirement account. Trading options provides a significant amount of income to me and my wife. I have taken a lot of time learning the proper techniques to trade options and can honestly say that it is the safest technique for trading. In fact all of my trades are winners. Have people take a test before trading options. Please do not take this away because of the few people who do not understand what options trading is about and have failed at it.
